Thoughtful Mother's Day Gifts

If choosing the right Mother's Day gift has been your biggest challenge over the years, try taking a cue from mom herself.

Millions of dollars have been spent researching and polling what moms desire most, so use it to your advantage! Mom has always been there when you needed it, and she deserves the best. Below are a few ways to treat her on Mother's Day:

1) Handwritten Letter- Showing your appreciation for mom with a handwritten note takes time and thought, and she'll recognize this. Remember all of the moments that mean the most to you and express your gratitude in a way that is unique to the bond you share. It will be a letter she'll cherish forever, and hey, it may even be proudly displayed on the refrigerator for months to come.

2) Time to Unwind- A thoughtful way to thank mom for all she does is to give a gift that helps alleviate her busy schedule so she can relax. Whether giving a spa package or simply cleaning the home, research has shown that moms expressed wanting to have time to themselves as a top Mother's Day gift.

Your mom deserves a gift that makes her feel as special as she actually is. This Mother's Day, put some thought into what you give mom with something that can remain a memory of a lifetime, whether it'd be a thoughtful card or some time to herself that she truly deserves.

Green Living Tip

It may seem surprising, but washing your dishes using a dishwasher, as opposed to hand washing, is better for the environment. A study conducted by researchers at the University of Bonn in Germany found that energy efficient dishwashers use only 50 percent of the energy and a small fraction of the water used when hand washing. They also use less soap. Dishwasher detergent tends to be harsher for the environment, but there are many environmentally friendly products on the market that work just as well as their less earth-friendly alternatives.

Reduce . Reuse . Recycle.

May is National Moving Month and it's important to be prepared, educated, and ready before a big move. National Moving month is not only the start of the busiest time of the year for moving companies, but also a time for consumers who enjoy house hunting in the beautiful spring weather. My Moving Reviews reports that last year, 63 percent of all residential moves were made during the months of May through October. During those months, the busiest day for moving was Friday, accounting for almost 20 percent of moves. Will you be in the that number in 2018?
